

Stop Killing Civilians

Public Talk on Cluster Munitions by John Rodsted

"I've witnessed first-hand the deadly explosiveness of cluster munitions on civilians. This weapon's days are numbered. We need to get rid of clusters now." - John Rodsted

Australian photographer John Rodsted has a compelling presentation of still and video images documenting the lethal impacts of landmines, cluster munitions and other explosive remnants of war in Afghanistan, Lebanon, Laos and elsewhere.
