

We would like to invite you and your friends to an Oxfam breakfast with Nobel Peace Laureate, Jody Williams and Oxfam's Papua New Guinea Representative, Eileen Kolma.

Thursday 21 February 2008
7.30am – 9.00am
Auckland Museum Events Centre

WOMEN
building peace

Is peace more than the absence of conflict?

This is a unique opportunity to hear from two inspiring women, who have dedicated their lives to building lasting peace.

Jody Williams won the 1997 Nobel Peace Prize for her work to secure the international ban on landmines. She chairs the Nobel Women's Initiative and advocates on a range of human security issues.

Eileen Kolma leads Oxfam's work to tackle the root causes of tribal conflict and gun violence in Papua New Guinea and build stronger, safer communities.

Tickets cost $45 each or $400 for a table of ten.
Call 0800 400 666 or visit www.oxfam.org.nz to book your tickets.
